

Cambodia Today

Dale & Evelyn Lundy

November 2, 2009

Each trip to Cambodia we have focused on meeting specific and different needs. Currently our work together focused on providing in-depth teaching on the Life of Christ and the Cross for the students shown below. These students attend CBI (Cambodia Bible Institute) in Phnom Penh. Several of them have been involved in training for leadership roles at the University church.

Sovann (sō-wahn)

Sereyvuth (woot)

Phalla (Pah-LAH)

Tawn — Dean of Students
(he also teaches and translates)

Try (tree)

Sopheap (sō-PEEP)

Pisey (pee-SĪ)

Sokna (sōk-NAH)

Sereyvath (Watt)

Dalen (dah-LINN)

Nika (NEE-kuh)

Sophak (sō-PAHK)

Nouen (NEW-un)

Chheav (chew)

Peng Sorn

Sokun (sōkoon)

Pen (puhn)

Vaneth (wah-net)

Soklee (sō-KLEE)

Left: Dale teaches a class on the Life of Christ.
Below: CBI Students.

Above: Shoes are left outside the school.
Right: A coat rack is not needed but a helmet-table is very much needed.

