

Women in God's Service

"Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms."
1 Peter 4:10

A "Spinner" in Our Midst! My name is Andrea (Andy to some) Suffridge. I enjoy several kinds of needlework and spinning. Spinning is challenging and interesting as there are many different fibers to investigate. Wool, dog hair, alpaca, cashmere, and mohair are a few I have worked with. Most can be used for sweaters depending on the feel of the yarn when spun. Some dog hair makes a very soft yarn and is quite warm when knitted. It doesn't smell like a dog when damp but it does tend to shed a bit. Spinning is relaxing after a little practice and can give a certain sense of accomplishment. If anyone would like to try their hand, there is plenty of wool to card and spin. Thanks, Andrea Suffridge

Again God has demonstrated the wonderful talents He has given to His daughters. Andrea has been given a unique talent she shares with others and uses to glorify God. Thanks, Andy, for sharing with us.

Secret Sisters! How creative can we be at investigating the provided hints?

- Compare handwriting to cards previously received
- Ask young children what they call their grandmother
- Ask young women if their dad is an elder
- Make a list of all families with 2 children

P.S. Even for a "church function" you have never seen so many scrumptious desserts

P.S.S. Join us next time!

Book Club The Book Club groups are under way and flourishing. There are three groups, each reading and discussing a different book.

- Book - The Power of a Woman's Words facilitators Holly Parker and Gayla Alexander
- Book - Same Kind of Different as Me facilitator Mignon Harris
- Book - The Shack facilitator Ellen Dowdy

When these groups have completed their current books, they will choose another book and/or other groups will be formed. If you think this would be something you might enjoy, contact Ellen Dowdy. She is always open to new ideas on how to continue with the "book club" idea. Book clubs present a unique opportunity for literary and spiritual discussions as well as fellow shipping. You can't afford to miss out!

Alert!

Keep your eyes open for:

The new conversational English program coming soon (contact Lara Copeland).
The mentoring program will be kicked off soon (contacts Kim Binkley, Fran Garrett, and Loretta Turner).
