

Women in God's Service

"Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms."

I Peter 4:10

Holly Worden

Holly Worden came to Broken Arrow last year from Edmond as the bride of Brent Worden.

She was born in Gothenburg, Sweden, to missionary parents Gerd and Lucky Fecht. She joined a sister Heidi and twin brothers Tim and Todd. Her mother is an Oklahoman and her father German. In 1980 Holly was born into God's family.

After nine years in the Swedish missionary field, the Fechts moved to Edmond when Holly was seven years old. Here Holly attended Living Word Academy and Oklahoma Christian Schools. From 1986 until 1992 she attended Oklahoma Christian University.

While in college she began working at a law firm, starting as a billing clerk then advancing to an administrative position. From there she joined a seat belt manufacturing company as office manager.

She later worked with Christian Services of Oklahoma where Devonne Carter, Dwayna Petre's sister, was the administrator. Through these women she was introduced to Brent. Holly's father was an occupational preacher after moving to the United States, working full time and preaching for smaller churches on weekends. The family first worked with the West Main congregation in Oklahoma City and later for the St. Louis church in Oklahoma.

Holly says she has not had opportunity to travel extensively but travel is a goal of the future. She did make one trip abroad, a mission trip to Poland. The Fechts made several trips back to Sweden and to Gerd's native Germany but Holly stayed here with her grandparents. Those days in Konawa with her grandparents are among her best childhood memories. Sadly, her grandmother now suffers from Alzheimers but Holly cherishes the memories of former days. "I miss my grandmother," she says.

She says cooking is not a hobby but she does cook for Brent. She now is occupied with organizing and combining the many "collections" that each has accumulated. Holly's favorite hobby is watching classic movies.

She is enjoying being at home and homemaking. She suffers from chronic migraine headaches but thinks recent medical treatment may help alleviate these. We pray so, Holly.

Hi,
Holly!
It's good to know you!
