Cambodian Update: After spending 2 nights & a day & a half at the hospital, & having her young husband die, Navy went back to the school, where she & Tawn live, to finally get a shower and change clothes. When she came back down the stairs to help wash the body, I nearly cried...she had changed into a shirt that in Khmer (the Cambodian language) says, "Have faith in God". How awesome is that!!

Through one of the most difficult times in her life, she reminded herself and all of us to have faith in God. She wore that shirt for that entire day, in front of many family members that are Buddhist. I thought that said a lot about her faith, her character, and her love for God. Keep this sweet lady in your prayers as she is now trying to sort out her life. She, like her husband, Tawn, is a wonderful Christian example. We are blessed by her life.

Much love, Ronda
