

Wednesday Nite News

July 27, 2011

The Breakfast CONNECTION: a service to the Deacons and Ministry Leaders. Saturday, July 30th at 8:30 in the Fellowship Hall. Pancakes & coffee will be served. The eldership will direct the "after-breakfast time". Please come and provide the fellowship & encouragement.

5th Sunday Lunch & Devo: This summer, after morning worship. Bring sandwiches, salads & desserts. Trent Dobbs, our youth intern, will be delivering the devotional after the fellowship meal.

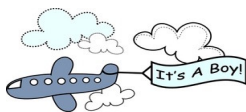

Interested in the Bus Ministry? If you have your CDL (or interested in getting one) and would like to coordinate the maintenance on our buses please contact Mike Baskett or Scott Keele.

Joseph's Journey: Thanks to all of those that have been involved in VBS this week. It has taken hundreds of volunteer hours to make VBS possible. In Oklahoma the average worth of a volunteer is $17.05 an hour. That makes VBS a high-priced production Thanks for helping to create such a great experience for our kids, their friends & family and the neighborhood kids.

Take-A-City Opportunity: The Afton church is looking for assistance teaching, preaching &/or conducting VBS for their small congregation. Their acting minister has ties to Broken Arrow. Please contact Lonnie Miller or the office.

Wednesday "Bring Your Own Dinner": Out of Eden Class & Timothy Class will serve drinks and help with clean-up.

Congratulations

...to Laura & Steve Copeland on the birth of a grandson, Cohen Judson Copeland, on July 21st. Cohen weighed 8 lbs 8 oz. Parents are Amanda & Judson Copeland of Edmond, OK.
