

Life groups

House to House . . . Acts 5:42

What and Why?

Life Groups exist to encourage small group Bible study, discussion and application, relationship building, growth through accountability, Christian fellowship, leadership training and outreach to our community. Group members share responsibilities and ownership of the Life Group and are committed to sharing their lives with others for mutual edification, strength, and spiritual growth.

When and Where?

Life Groups meet on the third Sunday of each month. Groups will meet during the afternoon or evening in a group member's home. On a rotating basis, two of the groups will meet at the church building to support those who choose to attend the Sunday evening service.

That just leaves... Who?

YOU are invited to participate in a Life Group! Groups accommodate the needs of singles and families, old and new members, the young and the young at heart! Contact one of our coordinators to learn more and to select your group:
